

Sit...Stay...Come... to Dog Obedience Classes

The Women's Humane Society's popular obedience training classes teach dogs basic commands and helps them learn appropriate behavior around other dogs and people. Instructors make classes fun for dogs and owners and provide the perfect opportunity to enjoy one-on-one time with your pet.

Our seven-week series of classes teaches your dog:

- Commands important for safety, such as sit, stay, sit and stay, leave it and come.
- How to walk on a leash without pulling.
- How to calmly walk by other dogs and people.
- How to greet people without jumping on them.

And much more!

- Leash*
- Food and Water Bowls*
- Toys*
- Shots*
- Obedience Training?*

Our Instructor

Deb McCrossen has more than 16 years of experience in dog training and has worked with dogs of all ages and breeds. She believes that training should be a good experience for both dog and owner and only uses positive techniques and training methods.

The Women's Humane Society offers obedience training classes to suit your busy schedule. Classes are available during the week, in the evening or on Saturday. Give us a call at 215-750-3100 to find out when our next series of classes starts or visit us on the web at www.whspets.org.

Every dog deserves a good education.

Why not enroll your dog in a
Women's Humane Society
Obedience Training Class? Classes are held weekdays, weeknights and Saturdays.

